

DELIGHTFUL GERMAN

Enjoyed in Suffolk by the Cotillion Club and Their Numerous Friends.

THAT ALLEGED BURGLAR CAPTURED.

Mr. Parker's Insurance Made Known
—The Nauseum Telephone Company Meets—Real Estate Transferred—Matters Pertaining to Prominent People—Other News.

Suffolk, Va., Nov. 29.—(Special.)—The directors of the Nauseum Telephone Company, W. N. McAnge, president, and Ben. Duvall, secretary, had a meeting this afternoon in the office of Harper & West. The investigation of the company's finances demonstrated the fact that their business affairs were on a satisfactory and profitable basis. The dividends on the investment prove the value of the company's management, aside from the convenience and efficiency of the service. The details concerning the addition of several new subscribers were discussed prior to the order of adjournment.

DELIGHTFUL GERMAN.—Last night's german of the Suffolk Cotillion Club continued in progress till the small hours of this morning. The occasion is pronounced by participants to be one of the most pleasant in the club's history. Borley Band, of Norfolk, furnished the music, and the figures were led by Mr. N. R. Withers. Among the visitors were: Mrs. Harry Herman, Norfolk; Misses Sue Urquhart, Jackson, N. C.; Janet Stringfellow, Nelson county, Va.; Eliza Urquhart, Norfolk; Kittle McNamara, Halifax, N. C.; Besse Atkinson, Franklin, N. C.; Em. Carney, Churchland, Va.; Messrs. Ames, Holt, and Charles Urquhart, Norfolk; Holt, Philadelphia, Va.; Plummer, Portsmouth, and Dr. R. R. Burgess, Norfolk.

REAL ESTATE CONVEYED.—The following bargain and sale deeds were to-day placed on record in the County Clerk's office:

John R. Holland and wife to Paul C. Holland, 58 acres of land in Holy Neck district, $350.

John Monell to Jesse W. Pruden, 75 acres in Nansemond county, $500.

Samuel Harrell and wife to Joshua B. Harrell, 44½ acres in Cypress district, $250.

James R. Splight and wife to Dr. Samuel Harrell, 150 acres in Cypress district, $1,150.

JOHN L. PARKER'S INSURANCE.—Parker particulars were learned to-day of the fire at John L. Parker's, Cypress Chapel. Mr. Parker had insurance policies amounting to $1,150 with Harper & West. Nothing else was insured. No one knows the origin of the blaze.

ALLEGED BURGLAR CAPTURED.—Constable Branch has captured Robert James, alleged to be one of the burglars who robbed the residence of Henry Wilkins last Saturday. He was committed to await a preliminary hearing next week. Others are thought to be implicated.

The hunting party of which Mayor Brewer and Sergeant Ames were members have returned from Lower Parish. They only bagged six hares.

Schooner John H. Pierce left to-day for Norfolk. The lumber cargo was not taken.

B. G. Butler and Wiley Knight, while gunning to-day, succeeded in killing a mammoth white breast hawk.

Mr. P. E. Green and family to-day changed their residence from Bank to Cedar street.

Rev. William Chinn, of the Presbyterian Church, returned to-day from Norfolk where he had been visiting.

King's Daughters, Circle No. 3, will have an important meeting Monday afternoon with Miss Julia Phillips, Main street.

Sheriff A. H. Baker is slowly recovering from his protracted illness. The mother of Rev. W. A. Barr has arrived from the West to make her home with him through the winter.

The Ladies' Aid Society of St. Paul's will have a benefit entertainment in the City Hall Theatre next Friday.

Mrs. A. M. Brownlee, of Franklin, Va., was yesterday the guest of Mrs. M. M. Urquhart, Cedar street.

The proceeds of "Old Maids' Convention," a benefit performance, were very satisfactory to the management.

Mr. B. M. Bruce will soon erect two new stores on Main street, near Jones' corner.

The Norfolk and Western company will inaugurate a new schedule next Sunday.

The December term of County Court in file of Wight will begin on Monday.

The members of the Suffolk Cotillion Club will have a special meeting next Monday night for reorganization in the office of R. S. Boykin & Co.

Mr. J. E. Dunbar, of Norfolk, was to-day registered at the Commercial Hotel.

Hon. J. E. Booker made an introductory trip to Richmond to-day prior to the meeting of the General Assembly next week.

The ladies identified with the interests of the Confederate veterans are requested to meet next Monday night in the Phoenix Fire Company's assembly hall.

For the Home Dress Maker.
Ermine is much used this winter on little girls' coats.

Capas, waists, costumes, and trimmings of velvet will be much worn this season.

The iridescent trimmings do not look well on a street dress unless concealed by a wrap.

Children's wraps are made with a round, full cape or a large sailor collar cut squarely off in front.

A new ribbon for cravat collars and belts is of black and white stripes, with an inch-wide band of colored satin on one edge.

Shaped pieces of jet or colored beads or bangles are very stylish and are generally known as garnitures, which cover all waist pieces.

The handsomest coats for little girls are of bengaline, velvet, lace collar and fur edging, but they are too elegant to be comfortable for a healthy, active child.

Quaint bonnets are in the "granny" style of bengaline silk, with a large plaited brim, full crown, ribbon strings and bow of ribbon on top with three short ostrich tips.

For a really useful tengown nothing is as good as Henrietta; a front of Japanese silk at fifty cents or more at sixty-five cents. A brighter color, with very elaborate trimming, is also available for this dress than for the intended for the street—Ladies' Home Journal.

HAMPDEN-SIDNEY COLLEGE.

The Project for Removing the Site to Fredericksburg Abandoned.

Fredericksburg, Va., Nov. 29.—(Special.)—Much has been published of late in the leading newspapers of Virginia about an effort on the part of the Assembly's Home and School, of this city, to secure the transfer of Hampden-Sidney College from its present site to Fredericksburg. So much has been said and such gratifying reports have been circulated about the progress being made that the people of this city were strongly of the opinion that it was only a question of time when this high and honored institution should be established here, and they were looking forward with pleasure to such a change. Your correspondent interviewed Rev. Dr. A. P. Saunders, the prime leader in the movement, and learned that the Board of Trustees of the Home and School had abandoned the project and would take no further action to effect the proposed change.

"Although the Home and School has taken no official action in the matter," said Dr. Saunders, "we were of the opinion that we might possibly bring about a transfer of the Hampden-Sidney College to this city. The Union Theological Seminary had been moved to Richmond, and it was thought that a change would prove beneficial to the College, but we knew that in order to effect such a change we must work quietly, so that those cities larger than Fredericksburg, that would desire to compete for such a prize, could not steal a march on us. We had made some little progress, when, through an unknown source, all the details of our plans were made public. A local paper and subsequently were published throughout the State; so we let the matter drop and since that time have had no desire to take it up again. The newspaper story that was published was not undoubtedly intended to do the writer to aid our project by showing the advantages of having a school like Hampden-Sidney in this city and inspiring upon the people the necessity of encouraging such an undertaking by public and private subscriptions to be used in defraying the expenses attendant upon such a transfer, but at the same time the story exposed the whole plan to the other four competing cities—Richmond, Petersburg, Lynchburg and Newport News—and I have no doubt that one of these will now secure Hampden-Sidney if its Board of Managers have any desire to bring about a change. It may be said in this connection that it has not as yet expressed such a desire."
